<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Book Title</th>
<th>Authors</th>
<th>Pages</th>
<th>Notes</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>
| | | | Cane, ‘Fault and strict liability for harm in tort law’
| | | | Nolan, ‘Causation and the goals of tort law’
| | | | Chamberlain, ‘Negligent investigation: tort law as police ombudsman’
| | | | Weinrib, ‘The disintegration of duty’
| | | | Henderson, ‘Managing the negligence concept: respect for the rule of law’
| | | | Calabresi, ‘The complexity of torts – the case of punitive damages’
| | | | Todd, ‘Policy issues in defective property cases’
| | | | Stevens, ‘Non-delegable duties and vicarious liability’
| | | | Murphy, ‘Juridical foundations of common law non-delegable duties’
| | | | Wingfield, ‘Perish vicarious liability?’
| | | | Giliker, ‘Comparative perspectives on vicarious liability: defining the scope of employment’
| | | | Tettenborn, ‘What is a loss?’
| | | | Amirthalingam, ‘The changing face of the gist of negligence’
| | | | Oliphant, ‘The structure of the intentional torts’
| | | | Réaume, ‘The role of intention in the tort in Wilkinson v Downton’
| Administrative Law | Cane (ed) | (Int Lib Essays in Law and Legal Theory, 2nd series, 2002) | Cohen, ‘Suing the state’
| | | | Bishop, ‘The rational strength of the private law model’
| | | | Sunstein, ‘Judicial relief and public tort law’
| | | | Cane, ‘Damages in public law’
| | | | Stevens, ‘Rights and other things’
| | | | Goldberg and Zipursky, ‘Rights and responsibilities’

TORT LAW
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Errera, ‘The twisted road from Prince Albert to Campbell and beyond: towards a right of privacy’</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Stapleton, ‘Benefits of comparative tort reasoning: lost in translation’</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>