

Questions

- 7 In what circumstances would a Roman citizen be liable for damage caused to another's property by (a) his slave, and (b) an animal owned by him?
2019
- 7 Compare and contrast the position of a slave and a filiusfamilias in Roman law.
2017
- 2 'A slave was not a person for the Roman lawyers.' (BUCKLAND)
Discuss.
2014
- 7 In what circumstances could a Roman citizen be held liable on a contract entered into by his son?
2013

Useful Resources

Watson, 'Roman Law: Patria Potestas' in Watson, Society and Legal Change, 2nd ed

Watson, 'Roman Slave Law and Romanist Ideology' \(1983\) 37 Phoenix 53

Lewis, 'Slavery, Family, and Status' in Johnston \(ed\), The Cambridge Companion to Roman Law